Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-16 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination claimed, to teach: a method and circuit for charging a signal in a semiconductor memory device comprising: first and second voltage sources, among others as claimed in independent claim 1, 7, the semiconductor memory device performs first and second cycles, each of which comprises steps of charging the signal by the first voltage source, switching from the first voltage source to the second voltage source, and charging the signal by the second voltage source after the switch step, wherein at least one of a first time period, in the first cycle is different from that/those in the second cycle.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
